Auctioneers Note:

Don & Shirley were long time residents of Curtis, NE spending over 50 years making Curtis their home to their family. They both taught at Medicine Valley Public Schools for many years and both very active members of the community. Don & Shirley built and lived in the same house all those 50 years and collected many things during their lifetime. There is literally something for everyone at this auction and it was impossible to list everything as many items were boxed up at the time we wrote up the sale.

Plan on lots of surprises on this one and make plans to attend this auction, it will be a large one you don't want to miss!
